Hi Carol...I was browsing and saw your note. I am interested because my father's first wife was a BRUNN. Her name was PAULINA L. BRUNN the dau. of Wilhelm and Paulina _____ BRUNN. This family emigrated to the US in 1863 from East Prussia Germany. The family lived in Massachusetts before moving to Exeter NH. CHILDREN: Lhoma, Alice, Helen, Sophia, Herman, Wilhelm, Miriam and Iona. Surname spelled differently...do you think it is the same?

Just went through my files and I have a letter from Lottie Schuck, 311W 325S, Jerome, Idaho 83338 answering my inquiry about her grandfather Peter Bruhn. Her family came from the Isle of Fohr, off the coast of Denmark/Germany. Peter N. Bruhn born about 1864, children Niclels Frederick, Peter Andrew, Rhineheart and Nandina Regina. Niclels came to the California when he was fifteen, his two brothers and sister followed. His parents also came to California about 1900 or so. If this is anyone's line I suggest you contact Lottie.

Can't believe I saw the name Bruhn. I have been looking for someone researching this name forever! My line is Peter Harold, born in Heide, Holstein, Germany on February 25, 1829. He came to America, arriving in New Orleans on the Brig Copernicus in 1852. His brother, I believe his name was Heinrich Christian Bruhn, arrived in New Orleans in 1855. Peter settled for a short time in Missouri but went to California for about 12 years. He returned to Missouri and married Bertha Techtmeier (Tegtmeier) and settled in Kimmswick and then Pevely, Missouri (just south of St. Louis, MO). I have been trying to locate Heinrich to see what happened to his line. Please contact me:

SUBJECT: BRUHN

Is anybody doing any research on the Bruhn line from Schleswig-Holstein, Prussia? Am looking for information about Peter Claus Bruhn (1828-1892) who married Maria Margaretha Niemann (1833-1909). They came to the U.S. in the late 1800's and settled in Iowa, Nebraska and Minnesota. Children were Claus Peter, Hans Frederick, Catherine Elizabeth, Johann Peter, Peter, Heinrich, Maria Dortha and Margaretha Wilhemene (my grandmother) who married Emmett Ira Jones.

All help is greatly appreciated.

LOCAL MAN OBSERVES HIS 88TH ANNIVERSARY

Tuesday, Aug. 12, John Schlundt, 257 Michigan, observed his 88th birthday anniversary. Between 20 and 25 friends called at their home during the afternoon and evening to offer their congratulations. In the evening a group of friends dropped in, bringing refreshments with them. The birthday celebrant received many cards and gifts of flowers. Among the callers were Mrs. M. A. Dreesen and her father, Walter Parker of Whiting. Mrs. Dreesen is a niece.

Schlundt was born in Jackson township. From 1910 to 1938 he was motorman on the Valparaiso-Gary interurban, until trolley service was discontinued here. He was then transferred to Gary where he remained until 1943, when he retired. A long distance call from Walter Schlundt, a son, and his wife from Cape Cod, was one of the highlights of his day. The Walter Schlundts reside in Bronxville, N.Y., but were enjoying a week's vacation at Cape Cod. The Schlundts had one other child, Mrs. Evelyn Schlundt Ritter, deceased in 1943.

SMALL-POX CONFERENCE.

Proclamation by Governor Mount is Favored.

The Indiana board of health met with Governor Mount and Attorney-General Taylor in Indianapolis at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon and discussed the small-pox situation in the state. Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the health board, reported the extent of the disease. Although it had appeared only in mild form he thought immediate steps should be taken to prevent its spread. Vaccine virus should be purchased and a proclamation should be issued to the people telling them of the danger. He was in favor of drawing in the contingent fund of the state, if necessary, to stop the course of the disease.

Township Trustees' Duties.

So much confusion has arisen among township trustees over methods of distributing poor relief under the acts of 1899, that Amos W. Butler, secretary of the state board of charities, Wednesday sent out to the township trustees of the state a circular calling attention to their duties.

The letter says that all township trustees will administer relief to needy poor, under house act No. 204, page 121, of the acts of 1899. The money will be advanced out of the county treasury and will be repaid thereto by a township levy the next year. After such relief has been given three months, or to the amount of $15, a statement must be submitted to the county commissioners, and authority asked to give further relief. The auditor, the letter says, is required to report all poor relief with details to the state board of charities. The letter urges the trustees to make their reports promptly.

Thieves at Work.

Late Saturday night thieves attempted an entrance into the home of Hon. E. D. Crumpacker. The thieves used a chisel in trying to pry open the windows which had been securely nailed down by the Crumpackers before their departure to Washington. The noise of the intruders soon attracted the attention of Night Policeman Will Mohnsen and several of the neighboring families. Officer Mohnsen fired several shots at the thieves who made good their escape.

POLITICAL NOTES

The state republican central committee has made the following selections:

Chairman—Chas. S. Hernly.
Vice Chairman—Joseph Kealing.
Secretary—Warren Bigler.
Treasurer—H. W. Bennett.

Landis and Watson will both be gubernatorial candidates, says a report.

The Republican state convention will be held May 16 and 17 at Indianapolis.

Grant Mitchener, of Valparaiso, was early on hand, and he may get a good appointment at the request of the state committee, says the Indianapolis News.

Chairman Hernly will not appoint his executive and advisory committees for a week or ten days. It is understood that there will be some changes as the committees now stand.

The factional fight between the Hanly and Haggard forces in district Ten is said to be utterly irreconcilable that Haggard will never have the ghost of a show of bringing down a united delegation.

The outlook in the Tenth is gratifying to the chairman, Thomas J. McCoy. Almost every county reports a close organization, and the old-time majorities are expected. There will be no opposition to the renomination of Judge Crumpacker, of Valparaiso, for congress.

The committeemen have agreed that the issues in the coming campaign would be expansion, trusts and the money question, as represented in the bill which congress will pass, and these gentlemen report that the party throughout the state is a unit upon these questions, republicans everywhere giving a hearty support to the president's policy.

The republican state committeemen, new and old, are full of confidence. The reason for this, they say, is that the state organization presents a stronger front than it has for a long time and is in for a long time and is in a position now to make a hard and successful fight against anything that can arise. They do not seem to fear the result and each thinks that his district is in excellent shape.

GREEN ISLANDS.

A dispatch says: It developed Wednesday that Congressman Crumpacker, who has introduced a resolution in the lower house directing the superintendent of census to collect statistics of marriage and divorces, was largely influenced in his action by the letters of Michigan clergymen directing attention to the Green Island at St. Joe, Benton Harbor and other Michigan lake towns and the evils arising from indiscriminate marriages.

Congressman Crumpacker has assurances that strong influences will be brought to bear to secure support for the measure.

The plan of the Indiana congressman is to submit statistics of marriages and divorces in the Michigan towns in support of the bill and the appropriation which it carries of $25,000 for the compiling of information. Congressman Crumpacker will draft another measure abating the divorce bill if the appropriation is made.

WOMAN'S CLUB Plans and Programs

Junior Woman's club met Wednesday evening at the clubrooms, with Prof. Carl Krekeler as guest speaker. Prof. Krekeler, who holds the title of Chief Naturalist of the State of Indiana, has spent the past several summers in the employ of the Indiana Department of Conservation. He pointed out there are now 18 state parks in Indiana, offering a wide variety of recreational facilities. The beauty of the parks was illustrated in a series of slides showing Indiana lakes for swimming and boating, trails for hiking, bridle paths, shelter areas for picnicking, etc.

There were excellent close-ups of plants and wild life. Several of the parks offer attractive hotel accommodations. Prof. Krekeler emphasized that taking advantage of the state parks is an ideal family pursuit. He concluded by saying that anyone wishing further information on any specific park, or the park system as a whole, might write the Department of Conservation, 311 W. Washington, Indianapolis, for full particulars.

Program for the evening continued with the appearance of a quartet composed of Dick Eckert, Roger Kyes, Ron Criswell and Mike Keller. They were accompanied on the piano by Linda Davidson.

Following the program, club president, Mrs. James Dean, conducted the business meeting. Members were reminded of the March 8 card party and style show. Proposed amendments to the constitution were read. A nominating comwith white and yellow glads and mums, with gilt palm leaves mixed in with the flowers. Only members of the immediate families were present.

Miss Joan Thompson of 20 N. Washington street, Valparaiso, attended the bride as her maid of honor. William Bacia of Valparaiso was best man to the groom.

A wedding supper was served at 5:30 with a reception following at 7 o'clock at the home of another brother of the bride, George Sipich, 2701 Union street, East Gary.

This spoke Lieutenant Governor Henry F. Schrieker of Indiana to the 73 graduates of the 63th annual commencement of Valparaiso university at the University auditorium yesterday afternoon. The auditorium was completely filled.

Schrieker began his address by paying tribute to Valparaiso university and congratulating both the graduates and their parents "who have looked forward and made every sacrifice for this day."

"One of the great problems is the lack of appreciation of youth for the sacrifices of those who have gone before," he said. "Then although he was 'not here to preach a sermon,' he chose the verse, 'Look unto the rock from whence ye were hewn and to the pit from whence ye were digged,' on which to elaborate.

"It would profit us to look to the rock from whence we were hewn and to the pit from whence we were digged," stated the speaker.

Turning to temporal affairs, he recounted the philosophy of a hitchhiker, which he said he wished the young people would turn over in their minds: "Wouldn't this be a hell of a world to live in if we knew there wasn't any hereafter?"

"We're living in a turbulent age, we all recognize that. . . . Men are at each others' throats. They've forgotten their God. It appears in daily life; it appears in public life. We want you in public life today more than ever before.

"Older folks like to look on younger people as the masterpiece of God, made in his image. They are something more than the product of the home, or the product of a university or school," was Schrieker's opinion.

Now You Can Visit Europe On Short Summer Vacation

NEW YORK, June 12.—(UP)—Pan-American Airways announced today the start of regular trans-Atlantic air passenger service between the United States and Europe on June 28.

Juan T. Trippe, president, said that the service, between the United States, Portugal and France, by way of Azores, will follow the route on which trans-Atlantic air mail service was inaugurated May 30.

The planes are scheduled to reach Lisbon, the first European port of call, in 22 hours and stop overnight before proceeding to Marseilles, an eight-hour flight.

Passenger rates, as filed with the civil aeronautics authority, will be $375 for oneway or $675 round trip.

Total mileage between New York and Lisbon is 3,447 miles. Trippe said that the company had petitioned the civil aeronautics authority for permission to operate four round trips weekly between the United States and Europe.

Federal regulations required that the company make five round trip crossings before starting commercial passenger service.

The top picture was taken from the back end of the Urschel hangar and shows how the planes housed there were twisted and torn by the gale like model ships dumped into a child's playbox. The lower photo is a general view of the wreckage, showing how the east end of the Urschel building was blown out. What appears to be a hole in the side of the hangar is all that remained of a home occupied by Lettie Winder, his wife, and small daughter, Dixie Lee. The house tipped completely over. In the foreground is the wreckage of the Valpo Aero Club's hangar which was completely demolished. The bottom photo shows one of the two planes which were in the club hangar. Its motor was torn completely off and the plane tossed on its back by the wind.

HOUSE GROUP MOVES TO END PROFITS TAX

WASHINGTON, June 12.—(UP)—The house ways and means sub-committee today tentatively agreed to discontinue the undistributed profits tax and to substitute a flat 18 percent levy on corporate earnings more than 25,000 a year.

The committee also tentatively approved virtually all the changes recommended by Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., to stimulate business recovery.

The treasury estimated that the changes would probably mean a loss of revenue to the government of $15,700,000 at the business level existing in 1939, a sum regarded as consequential compared with the yield of approximately $1,500,000 produced by other taxes in the business field.

VF - PORTER COUNTY FAMILIES
BRUHN FAMILY (HAMANN)

27.5 x 28.1
LEXIA 700 V A - 24950

Goldsboro, NC-27530

Dear "Bruhn" Friends:

Since each of you have graciously responded to my earlier letters -- and quite promptly I might add -- I feel that I owe each of you a letter. The most efficient way to handle this is to mail copies of the same letter to all, and thus we know where we each stand at this particular point in history.

I have identified six distinct Bruhn families, plus a couple of marriages that I have not placed with any of the six. Thus far, no inter-relationship has been discovered between the six. For purposes of identification, I will refer to them as Family A, B, C, D, E and F. I will include those of you who have corresponded with me as the "Contact Person" under your primary family, even though you may have information on more than just your family.

FAMILY A: Johann Bruhn Sr. and wife Elsabe Frodie (selfishly, I list this family first, since it is the one I am most interested in. I will not say too much here about them, but will include an additional page of data).

Roots: Hademarschen, Holstein, Germany

to USA: about 1865

Contact: Al Hamann (his great-grandfather's sister married Claus Bruhn)
Mrs. Lester Finney, 179-S/ 75-E, Valparaiso, IN-46383 (her first husband's father (Wm. Schlundt) had a brother, John, who married Anna Elizabeth Dreesen, the daughter of Anna (Bruhn) Dreesen.)

FAMILY B: Sophia Bruhn, whose daughter Sophie Marie m Ernst Wentorf

Roots: Holstein, Germany (Linsfeld, Kiel, Euton, Braak, Lubeck mentioned) to USA: ? (arrived Two Rivers, WI. in May 1884, but was that first stop?)

Contact: Mrs. Hilary Vanderbloemen, 7226 W. Wabash Ave., Milwaukee, WI.-53223 (granddaughter of Sophie Marie Wentorf)

Sophie Marie Bruhn (dau of Sophia Bruhn and ?) was born in Liensfeldt (or Linsfeld) Germany 7 Nov 1849, and married in same village to Ernst Heinrich Westorf in 1870. She had 11 children (3 died in childbirth), with Mrs. Vanderbloemen's father being the youngest. Grandma arrived in Two Rivers in 1884 with 5½ children. They were Lutherans, as were members of Family A.

FAMILY C: Charles Bruhn Sr. and wife Wilhelmina Schüeler; four sons -- William, Herman, Charles Jr. and Frank (who d. 1890 at 5 yr.). Three sons each m and had one child, with our contact being only child remaining.

Roots: Mecklenburg, Germany (the old area east of Hamburg; possibly Bezscherwin now) -- no village names given to USA: 1880s

Contact: Leona Bruhn, 119 Clair St., Michigan City, IN-46360 (granddaughter of Charles Bruhn, Sr. who died 1925 at age 71)

Leona Bruhn says she "was born a Bruhn and remained one" (though her name was originally given to me as Mrs. L. Bruhn, she only signed herself Leona Bruhn. I assume she is unmarried, or she would have mentioned a husband's Bruhn family. She adds that "Grandfather had a sister in Germany -- she married a Mr. Puls; they had two sons who were both killed in World War I."

VALPARAISO PORTER COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY
VALPARAISO, INDIANA 46081

FAMILY D: Karl "Daniel" Bruhn (b. 1879 Sweden; d. 1954 Chesteron, IN.)
 m 1909 (Hammond, IN.) to Selma S.V. Roos (b. 1884 Sweden; d. 1971 ILL.)
 5 ch: Eugene 1910; Florence 1912; Irving 1917; Alice 1920; Louise 1926
 Anders Edvin Bruhn (brother of Karl "Daniel") (b. 1883 Sweden;
 d. 1965 Hammond, IN.; m 1913 (Hammond) to Emily Krook
 2 ch: Helen 1916 and Grace, b. ?

Roots: Sweden

to USA: (haven't heard)

Contact: Mrs. Hugh A. Hopkins, 912-N/ 250-E, Chesterton, IN-46304
 (daughter of Karl Daniel's eldest son Eugene)

Mrs. Hopkins says that Karl Daniel and Anders Edvin were the only Bruhns from their family in the U.S. Interestingly, her mother's brother ("Bud" Shupe) used to live over John Bruhn's store in Valparaiso (John of Family A).

FAMILY E: ? Wilhelm Pearsson married _____ Bruhn

Roots: Sweden

to USA: (haven't heard, but contact's in-laws were both immigrants)

Contact: Mrs. Jane (Kinsey) Bruhn, 219 - 174th St., Hammond, IN. (Mrs. Clarence Bruhn) (Clarence was grandson of Wilhelm above)

In a strange twist for their day, Clarence Bruhn's grandfather's name was Wilhelm Pearsson, but he took his wife's maiden name of Bruhn for his own. Both of Clarence's parents were immigrants.

FAMILY F: William H. Bruns or Bruhns

Roots: Germany

Contact: none; Porter Co., IN. records

Nobody has surfaced with knowledge of this family. According to the death record in Porter Co., William Bruhns was born 10 Mar 1846 in Germany, the son of Ham Bruhns (could they mean Hans?). He died 19 Jan 1930 at 84, his wife was Znia, and he was buried at Maplewood Cemetery. Maplewood Cemetery shows William H. Bruns, with wife Dina C. (1865-1940) and also Minnie, Emma, Willie. There is a 1900 census record for William Brhuns (probably an error in spelling), wife Dina, and children Frank, Otto, Nellie, Minnie. I did not fully research for any more details, except noting that he was a tailor, as was the father of Sophia Marie Bruhn of Family B.

OTHER NOTES:

G. On 13 June, 1898 a John H. Bruhn m Henrietta Reprogle (also called "Mary"). Their son, Claud Bruhns, died 19 Jun 1906 at 7 yrs. old; buried Old City Cemetery in Valparaiso, IN. I do not believe we should confuse this John with the one who married in 1904 to Amanda Alpen from Family A., though it is still possible they were the same (both were John H. Bruhn). Family A's John's obituary only mentions wife Amanda and son J. Vernon Bruhn.

H. On 7 Dec 1931, also in Porter Co., a W. W. Shoemaker married an Esther Henrietta Bruhn (dau. of Fred of Leipzig Germ. and Mary (Motz)). Esther was born 20 Jun 1900 in Dolton, IL, and lived in Chicago in 1931. I have no idea where she might fit, if in fact with any of the other families.

Having said all this, I am not sure that we know any more than the fact that there must have been several broods of Bruhns (or Brun or whatever). Mrs. Hopkins of Family D (Swedish) says their name was originally Brun, but that her great-grandmother put an "h" in it to Germanize it.

Speaking of roots, we do not know of any connection between the Swedish and German groups. From studying my German maps (both current and 1872 versions), I come to the following conclusion. If you can locate Hamburg on your map:

- a. Family A territory can be found by going about 30 miles northwest of Hamburg to Itzehoe, and then about 15 miles north.
- b. Family B was about 50 miles northeast of Hamburg (near Eutin), which was roughly 50 miles due east of Family A
- c. Family C (only roughly given as Mecklenburg) would probably have been about 30-50 miles east of Hamburg and south-east of Family B territory by maybe 30-50 miles.
- d. Sweden's southern tip would have been about 200 miles northeast of Hamburg (as the crow flies), with Denmark being the route-connector.

Although each of us claims some association with a common name (Bruhn), I am not sure that we represent a very close-knit fraternity. I imagine that I speak for some of us in saying that we will keep our eyes open in case we come across anything that looks significant or which might prove helpful to any of us. And I probably speak for some in saying that the Bruhn interest is just not that great at the moment, due to the remote connections.

Perhaps, however, at this one point in history, we each have at least this letter in common (a copy of which will be sent to the Valparaiso Public Library for their "Bruhn" file). I welcome your reaction (since I love to receive mail and also to solve puzzles), but I am not going to lose a great deal of sleep if I do not hear from you, due to the lack of proven connections between us. I would be interested in knowing if anyone has documentation concerning the John H. Bruhn and Henrietta Reprogle family (#G on p. 2). Otherwise, I hope this letter has helped a little to pull things together, and apologize for any errors or confusions which may have crept in. Thank you for making it this far through my ramblings, and good luck in your various searches.

Sincerely,

Al Hamann

Allen G. Hamann
